

Connector

Your name _____

Title of book _____

Date _____

Pages read for today's meeting _____

Your job is to find connections between the book and yourself, between the book and the outside world, such as stories in the news or the community, or between the book and other pieces of literature. List three connections below to share with your group:

Connection #1:

Connection #2:

Connection #3: